Driving while under the influence of alcohol or drugs is against the law, but more importantly it is very dangerous for everyone . It is especially dangerous when the driver who is under the influence is a driver who has been placed in a position of trust, such as Taxi drivers. We at the Transport department are determined to stop this practice of drinking and driving, so all those who like to drink then drive you have been warned, we will prosecute all those found to be over the legal limit of 0.08, and will ask the courts to suspend the license of any taxi driver caught over the limit.
