

Transportation to Caye Caulker

Article Number: 512 | Rating: Unrated | Last Updated: Mon, Nov 27, 2017 2:22 AM

I am on a Southwest flight from Houston that lands at 4:37 in the afternoon, assuming all goes as planned. The last ferry to Caye Caulker is at 5:30. I suspect that getting to the dock by 5:30 will not be probable. It also looks like I am too late for air travel out there as well. Are there any other options for getting out to Caulker that evening? I've already paid for hotel that night on Caulker so I'd prefer not to have to book a room in Belize City.

Hi, I would call the ferry folks at these links and get their recommendations...
