Greetings to my visiting friends

On behalf of the people of San Pedro Town, I extend a warm welcome to all visitors arriving to our shores. I assure you that your trip to “La Isla Bonita” will be no ordinary vacation. Our island is famous for its rich cultural diversity, where Mestizos, Creole and Garinagu blend to form a unique encounter. While here, I encourage you to explore the Caribbean Sea and find Belize’s abundant treasures. Hol Chan Marine Reserve and Shark-Ray Alley are just two of the many spots where you can enjoy our coral reef formation and abundant and breathtaking sea life. San Pedro is also home to world-class fishing and scuba diving.

For the more adventurous, “La Isla Bonita” offers a wide array of water sports and for those looking to get a glimpse of the mystical world of the Maya, these historical ruins are just a short expedition away. You will also be able to discover Belize's vast cave systems and many natural sanctuaries that are home to our country’s unique flora and fauna.

Whether you are spending your honeymoon at an exclusive resort or looking for an adventurous, yet romantic escape, San Pedro is surely the place to be. I invite you to explore our home and see the many wonders it has to offer.

We welcome you with open arms. Bienvenidos a San Pedro!

Jim Rosenberger just returned from an incredible two week dive trip in the Galapagos Islands, Ecuador, South America. While there, he saw huge schools of hammer head sharks, dove with big pods of dolphins, saw over 33 whale sharks … and even dove with an albino whale shark (pictured below), which is believed to be a first sighting anywhere!

During this incredible adventurous trip, he of course took a copy of The San Pedro Sun all the way to Darwin’s Arch at Darwin’s Islands in the Galapagos Islands. In his own words, he “just can’t put the paper down!...and he can’t wait to come back [to the island]”.

We can’t wait to see Jim either, and hear all about his trip in person!

Livity Craft Shop

We see many beautiful items being peddled on our streets, and often, we wonder how on earth they came to be. Most prominent are the wood carvers who line the beaches and even front streets selling their wares. Interestingly enough, one can observe how each peddler finishes his items, sanding and buffing and shining up a beautiful wood bowl, carving of a dolphin or sting ray, and even a simple, yet beautifully elegant wooden cross. Many artists follow the same trend, creating similar pieces and saturating the market with like items. However, there are the few who take their art form to a higher level, applying their efforts to larger, singular items that do command presence, and require showcasing in a store, waiting for the right buyer to snap it up and provide it a nice home. One such store in San Pedro is Livity.

Containing beautiful handmade items made by brothers Reymundo and Gabriel Chi, Livity provides an outlet for the larger, more unique items that command attention. Giant wood carvings that showcase their true originality and talent are set up on the floor of Livity's shop. Smaller pieces dot the showcase shelves; and while they are smaller, they are just as intricate and draw your eye. The rare rosewood, driftwood, mahogany and other native woods either combine to form one piece or stand alone and shine in their own glory. Powerful cats seem frozen in time, jaws open, ready to pounce, beautiful and fluid, these carvings merit a place of honor. Beautiful underwater scenes, built from several kinds of woods, showcase the variety of marine life teeming in our reef. The details, captured beautifully and forever preserved, make quite the impression, confirming what we already know: Belize has talent, and San Pedro's Livity has the artwork to prove it!

Club Latino

lounge to relax and pass the time while you chitchat and catch up with friends, well Club Latino is just that. With their Latin beats, the Club resonates with melodies from influential Spanish speaking artists. However, English, trendy songs are included in their repertoire of melodies. Tying in the friendly vibe with the professional air that every patron deserves, Club Latino is there to serve you. Whether it may be a Belikin beer or a provocative cocktail, the wait staff and bartenders are there for your every concoction need. Key and very important to any lounge are the sitting areas and Club Latino takes that well into consideration. All are designed to give you the most cozy seat in the house (all of them are the most comfortable seats). With their dark, tantalizing colors, Club Latino is definitely a place to relax and let the hours slip by.

Owner Yaneizie Zuniga hails from the island of Cuba, a place known for its infectious beats, and is what she missed the most. Incorporating her passion and Latin flavor, Yaneizie’s Club Latino is amazing and entertaining all. Don’t sit around at home, come on over and enjoy great music, wonderful drinks and a grand old time at Club Latino.
Banana Cake

Ingredients:
- 3 eggs
- 3 medium ripe bananas (1-1/2 cups) 375g
- 1 tsp baking soda 5ml
- 1/2 tsp cinnamon 2ml
- 1/2 cup sour cream (optional) 125ml
- 1 cup margarine 225g
- 1 tsp vanilla 5ml
- 2 tsps baking powder 10ml
- 1/2 cup raisins (optional) 5ml
- 1/2 cup sugar 450g
- pinch of salt
- 3 cups all purpose flour 340g

Directions:
1. Prepare cake tins (grease and line).
2. Preheat oven to 350F/180C.
3. Peel and mash bananas.
4. Cream margarine with sugar. Add lightly beaten eggs, one at a time. Mix well.
5. Add vanilla and bananas. Mix well. Add flour, baking powder, baking soda, nutmeg, cinnamon, raisin and salt alternately with sour cream.
6. Put mixture into cake tin.
7. Bake for 40 minutes in a moderate oven at 350F/180C until tester comes out clean.
8. Cool before removing from cake tin.
I was asleep. I woke up when Dulce started yelling for me to help because "Where were you when all of this happened?" Don asked me. She says she has a surprise for him. "I heard you had a break-in at your house last night. I don't know who the thief was, but he was in such a hurry that he left his bicycle behind."

"I saw it," I said. "She was screaming, 'You son of a bitch! You stole my last bottle of perfume!' You bring it back!"

"What did he do?" Don asked.

"He did what any sane person would do with Melody chasing him with a knife," I said. "He ran like the thief he was. He was lucky to get out of there alive. As a matter of fact, he was in such a hurry that he left his bicycle behind."

"There's a short, Spanish thief with a little beard in the San Pablo area who's missing a blue bicycle," Dulce said. "Melody locked it up and is waiting for him to come back to get it. She says she has a surprise for him."

"Where were you when all of this happened?" Don asked me.

"I was asleep. I woke up when Dulce started yelling for me to help because there was a thief in M elody's apartment. I told her I couldn't help. He got himself into that mess and he can damn well get out of it by himself."

Trivia Tidbits...

- Frogs never drink. They absorb water from their surroundings by osmosis.
- In Milan, Italy, there is a law on the books that requires a smile on the face of all citizens at all times. Exemptions include time spent visiting patients in hospitals or attending funerals. Otherwise, the fine is $100 if they are seen in public without a smile on their face.
- Men with mustaches may be allergic to their own lip hair. That is because mustaches may harbor airborne pollens that trigger allergies.
- Diamonds mined in Brazil are harder than those found in Africa.
- A n obsolete term for a foolish, talkative person is "blatherskite."
- The gloves worn by professional boxers weigh a regulation 8 ounces. The Golden Gloves, on the other hand, weigh 10 ounces.
- Diamond mining methods include open pit mining and underground mining. Open pit mining, also known as open pit mining, is a mining method used to mine or quarry open-pit mines. Underground mining is a mining method used to extract coal, metal ores, and other minerals from underground deposits. The choice of mining method depends on the depth and size of the deposit, the geological conditions, and the availability of equipment. The methods are also influenced by environmental considerations, safety concerns, and economic factors. Open pit mining is generally more cost-effective for mining shallow deposits, while underground mining is preferred for mining deep deposits.
- The Academy Award statue is named after a librarian's uncle. One of the most famous librarians in Hollywood is Margaret Herrick, who worked as a librarian at the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. She suggested the design for the Academy Award statue, which was inspired by a bust of a woman. The statue was created by sculptor George Habs in 1928.

- Golden Gloves, on the other hand, weigh 10 ounces.
- There are various sources for diamonds. One of the most common sources is placer deposits, where diamonds are found in streams and rivers. Other sources include alluvial deposits, where diamonds are found in beach and river sediments, and eluvial deposits, where diamonds are found in the soil. Diamonds are also found in Kimberlite pipes, which are small, pipe-like structures in the Earth's crust that are formed by the eruption of magma from the Earth's mantle. Kimberlite pipes are the most common source of diamonds in the world. Kimberlite pipes are also known as diamond pipes. The pipes are filled with a mixture of diamonds, graphite, and other minerals, and are formed when magma from the Earth's mantle erupts onto the surface of the Earth and cools. The magma cools and solidifies, forming a pipe-like structure. Kimberlite pipes are often found in abandoned mines, and are a common source of diamonds in the world.
