Fly to Placencia with Tropic Air

The Cessna Garmin 1,000 GPS base brings new visualization to the pilot.

Nestled along the beautiful Placencia beach is Paradise Resort.

With over 31 years of experience, Tropic Air, one of the leading airlines in Belize, flies daily to 10 destinations which include flying to Central America into Flores, Peten in Guatemala and Guatemala City. With Tropic, one can fly all over the country and discover the beauty that is Belize. One of those exciting destinations that Tropic Air takes pride in serving is Placencia. With their recent upgrade of over 50% of its fleet, Tropic's new Cessna Garmin 1000 brings new levels of safety and confidence to the go-anywhere, do-everything caravans used by Tropic Air. The new caravan provides a smoother and more relaxed ride to Placencia, and the 25-minute flight from Belize City on Tropic Air is most convenient. Any visitor looking to make the most out of the dazzling views of a turquoise Caribbean Sea and white sandy beach will appreciate the shorter flight in lieu of the alternative: an hour's-long road trip.

Once in Placencia, the friendly and reliable staff at Tropic Air is always willing to assist visitors with the other step: looking for the best affordable places around the village. Of course, the first impression counts, and from the minute you are met by the Tropic Air crew, headed by Sandra, you know that there is something magical about Placencia. Whether it is the friendly, warm and generous people always greeting you with a smile, or its food and the unique little dining places, or maybe its white sandy beaches complimented by its little huts, cabanas or small hotel. Placencia offers a diverse combination to satisfy any and all visitors to its peninsula.

One particular place that stands out amongst many local places is Paradise Resort; it is perhaps the perfect Placencia getaway. It won't take you long to discover why Paradise is so especially unique. The small resort has only 12 rooms, and offers a fully operated restaurant and bar, with an onsite gift shop filled with native art pieces, a spa in which you can get a massage, a tackle shop, a dive shop and tour office. The rooms count with almost all the commodities of a high end resort; private hot and cold bath, air-conditioned rooms, television and cable system, free internet service and even a safety-deposit box to secure your personal belongings. The resort also offers ocean view rooms and an upper deck view where you can get your bar and restaurant services while lounging in the Jacuzzi.

Visitors staying at Paradise can have a fascinating time along the beach, enjoy the breathtaking sunset or sunrise at the over the water deck, experience the fly-fishing tour or by simply kayaking along the beach, enjoying the flora and fauna of Placencia. Paradise offers complimentary pickups and drop-off at the airstrip, walk in specials on rooms and even special rooms with double beds for large families. Open since 1984, Paradise might be small enough to give you individual service, but large enough to offer you all the conveniences that you might need.

Nestled within the cradle of Belize's rich cultural district of Stann Creek, the people of Placencia take great pride in their food. In fact one just needs to visit Wendy's Creole Restaurant on the main street in the heart of the village and glance at their menu. Specializing in local cuisine, Wendy's provides daily specials from two of the main Belizean cultures; Creole and Mestizo. Most of the foods are cooked with local ingredients and many include seafood. If you are not game to try the Belizean flavors, Wendy's also offer international cuisine for those who choose otherwise.

The cool, sweeping tiled patio compliments the air conditioned indoor dining room; both perfect for enjoying a relaxing and delicious meal. A favorite breakfast spot, popular items include Wendy's Stuffed Jack (Fry Jack), Huevos Rancheros – a Spanish dish with a Belizean twist, and a more traditional Belizean breakfast; stew chicken, refried beans and fresh flour tortilla or fry jacks. Wendy's also makes some of the best pancakes and French toast around and has a large breakfast menu. At lunch, Wendy's offers so much more in the line of light fare including burritos, fajitas, Carefully selected music flows into the Mambo dining room, filled with contemporary paintings, candelabras, local ceramic treasures, exotic handcrafted Belizean art and Central American mahogany furniture.

Our award-winning restaurant is considered one of the best restaurants in the country. Our chefs prepare daily exquisite contemporary dishes and a variety of homemade pastas and breads and fresh spices and herbs come from our own garden.

"With Matachica Beach Resort and its Mambo Cuisine Restaurant, Belize is making a quantum leap in becoming known for its cuisine."

Conde Naste, Magazine UK Edition

"Sol y Luna advisory board selected Mambo Cuisine as one of the best restaurants in Belize and Central America. The food is exquisite and memorable, the wines superb and the company always friendly."

Central America Sol y Luna Guide

"Mambo, the dining room of the Matachica Beach Resort and Ambergris Caye's top restaurant, with superb food and wine and a classy romantic atmosphere... Try the exquisite home-made fettuccini or the original paella."

Belize, The Rough Guide

"...The variety and delectability of the meals served reflects the care and expertise that go into their preparation, particularly the seafood and pasta. The soaring majestic and cosmopolitan palapa dining room has charming decorative touches, like sea-shells used as salt and pepper shakers."

nachos, salads and more. Dinner is an experience like no other; mouth-watering Cheesy Creole Shrimp, scrumptious Island Style Snapper Fillet and tasty lobster dishes (when in season) are enough to satisfy any seafood lover.

If the activities during the day are not enough, then the final stop for you can be at RumFish y Vino. Just a year old, RumFish y Vino is "the place" at night, not only for residents of Placencia, but for those who visit and live along its 16 mile peninsula. A place for locals and tourists alike, it is known for having the best wine list of over 40 in Belize; some of which are only found at Rumfish y Vino.

Located in the Placencia Village Square, Rum Fish y Vino is a wine bar which offers local draft beers, a full bar, and 'small plates' style dining. The atmosphere is breezy, cool with soft music; a perfect place to wine, dine and chat with old friends. Its outdoor and indoor dining, plus large rectangular bar with comfortable seating complements the warm, friendly and attentive staff, making your night at Rumfish Y Vino a wonderful experience. Owned and operated by John and Pamela Solomon, RumFish y Vino is their dream come true and a place well worth visiting.

The next time you plan to visit in Belize, consider the many adventures and good experiences Placencia has to offer and remember that Tropic Air can take you there. Tropic offers five daily flights to and from Placencia and Belize City, and over 120 scheduled flights from 10 destinations in Belize and Guatemala. Tropic Air also offers charters and tours to some of the most remote and exotic places in Belize. For more information on Tropic Air visit their website at www.tropicair.com or email them at reservations@tropicair.com. You can also call them at in the USA or Canada by calling 1-800-422-3435, in Belize 501 - 226-2012 or fax at 011-501-226-2338.

Man in Training

"Davin, what are you doing sticking a knife in the ketchup bottle?"
 "I'm getting the ketchup out, Grandpa," four year-old Davin said.
 "Give me the bottle," I said. "and I'll show you how to do it. See, you hold the bottle upside down and smack it with your hand. Do it a few times and the ketchup comes right out."
 "O.K., Grandpa," he said. "Let me try it."
 Later, that evening Melody said, "I want you to have a talk with Davin for me."
 "Sure," I said. "What's up?"
 "Mom told me about you showing him how to get ketchup out of the bottle," she said. "With his dad being in the U.S. I think it's great that he has a man to show him how to do things. I want you to help me with something else."
 "What's that?"
 "He just got all of these new toys for Christmas and he spends so much time playing with them that he doesn't want to take time out to go to the bathroom. Since Christmas, I've had to clean up a number of messes."
 "That's easy to take care of," I told her. "I'll do with Davin what my dad did with me at that age."
 After dinner Davin said, "Grandpa, I'm going out to ride my bicycle."
 "Not yet," I told him. "You're going to go into that bathroom and use the toilet first."
 "But I don't have to go," he protested.
 "Well, you stay in there until you have to," I said.
 Twenty minutes later I walked to the bathroom door and called, "Davin, did you go yet?"
 "Not yet, Grandpa," he said.
 Fifteen minutes later I called again, "Are you done in there?"
 "Not yet, Grandpa."
 I heard a strange smacking noise and pushed the door open. Davin was seated on the toilet hitting himself in the head with the palm of his hand.
 "Thonk! Thonk! Thonk!"
 "Davin, why are you doing that?" I asked.
 He said, "It works for ketchup."

Trivia Tidbits

*Rafflesia flowers can measure 3 feet across — the biggest flowers of any plant. They are also the smelliest flowers, reeking of rotten meat. This is a trick designed to attract flies for pollination.
 *There are four places in the United States with the word "chicken" in their name. Chicken, Alaska; Chicken Bristle, in Illinois and Kentucky; and Chickentown, Pennsylvania.

 *The water of the Dead Sea is seven to eight times saltier than ocean water.
 *Of the 206 bones in the average adult human body, 106 are found in the hands and feet (54 are in the hands; 52 are in the feet).
 *A human can hear the tick of a watch from 6 meters in very quiet conditions.
